Visit to Maldon

Rosemarie Nelson is organising a visit to the Combined Military Services Museum in Maldon on Wednesday 11th June followed by lunch at a nearby pub. The museum is "small but perfectly formed" and has a fascinating display of items relating to all aspects of military activities - Special Forces, Spies, the English Civil War, the WW2 Home Front, uniforms and even a Cockleshell Heroes canoe. The plan is to meet at the museum at 10.30 a.m. and then go to the Hurdlemakers' Arms pub for lunch at 1.30 p.m. We are restricted to between 25 and 30 people for lunch because it's not huge. We will be required to pre-order and menus for the lunch will be sent out in the next few weeks.

If you would like to join this visit, please email on rosemarie.nelson@btinternet.com.

Calendar Girls – the Musical

The Blackmore Players are performing Calendar Girls – the Musical from Thursday 19th to Saturday 21st June (matinee and evening performances on the Saturday) at Blackmore Village Hall. This musical is based on the story of a group of WI members who pose nude for a charity calendar and it was made into a very successful film, stage play and now a musical. The music is written by Gary Barlow and whilst the tunes are not so well-known, they are all catchy and enjoyable. The script is very funny and also quite sad in parts – reflecting the true events as they happened. Tickets are selling well and can be purchased on the Players website, blackmoreplayers.co.uk. Rosemarie is in the cast but she says she is not one of the girls who strip off – a blessing for all says Peter!

Thursday 26th June

Meals will be available from 6.30 pm onwards. Any queries to Christine Upward at cupward@onetel.com
